Association for Quality EDUcation and Training Online

• evaluating blended and online training courses against a quality assurance framework
• conducting research into best practice in online learning and teaching
• representing a community of high-quality, accredited providers in a crowded and confusing marketplace
• helping current and future professionals identify such courses, and enrol with confidence
Timeline of activity

2015 – AQUEDUTO founded and QA framework written and trialled
2016 – First AGM and working committees established
2017 – QA framework revised; first inspections; research agenda
2018 – All initial inspections completed; first research published